

The New Allegra Bracelet Collection

July 2013 - Enter the world of infinite spirals and colorful rainbows. Diamonds, sapphires, emeralds, tsavorites create spontaneous swirls of light and luster, like the leaping flames of a bonfire, high-energy, high style.

The Allegra Bracelet shares a woman's most treasured moments, a cool and relaxed day or an intimate candlelight dinner. These precious and unforgettable memories belong to her and her Allegra Bracelet.

Named after the eldest daughter of Fawaz Gruosi, the new Allegra Bracelet Collection comes in pink and white gold, with a leather band offered in a variety of 10 colors.
