ARNOLD & SON
SINCE 1764

Founded by John Arnold in London in 1764, Arnold & Son holds a firm place in the grand English watchmaking tradition. From the outset, the company established a reputation for trailblazing innovation. Today, we build on this unique heritage in La Chaux-de-Fonds, the cradle of modern Swiss watchmaking. We are proud to exhibit at Baselworld 2017, where visitors to our booth can look forward to viewing the latest collection, including our new models with their respective manufacture movements.
